

In the box below, please write an explanation of why you decided to record in Daniel's daily log that he was not his 'usual self'. Please include what you think the outcome of this might be for everyone involved.

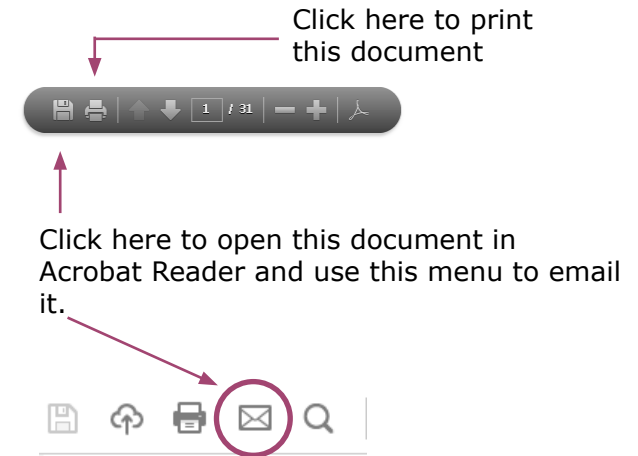

We suggest that to cover this is sufficient detail, you should write about 400 words. You might find it helpful to include how your choice relates to legislation and the SSSC Code of Practice for Social Service Workers. When you have finished your reflective account, you can save the this page to your computer or email it.

When you are ready to continue to read the feedback on your decision, click this link.

Instructions

Click in the box to begin typing your reflective account

To save the document, move your mouse cursor to the bottom of this page this menu* will appear,

*This menu may look different in other browsers:

