Advocate with and on behalf of children and young people

Overview

This standard identifies the requirements when you lead independent representation and advocacy with, and on behalf of, children and young people. This includes supporting children and young people to identify how and by whom they wish to be represented, then working with them to represent their needs and wishes. It also includes helping children and young people to understand the outcomes of the representation. The standard includes supporting children and young people to evaluate their experiences of the advocacy support they have used and the systems they have encountered.

Performance criteria

Work with children and young people to identify how and by whom they wish to be represented

You must be able to:

- P1 engage with the child or young person in ways that promote their trust and active participation, taking account of their level of development
- P2 support the child or young person to understand the processes in which they are involved
- P3 support the child or young person to understand how they can make their views known
- P4 support the child or young person to communicate their feelings, preferences and needs about advocacy and independent representation
- P5 seek relevant advice from key people close to the child and young person, with the child or young person's consent
- P6 provide the child or young person with all relevant information about advocacy and independent representation
- P7 support the child or young person to interpret and understand the information provided
- P8 ensure that it is the child or young person who determines whether in specific situations they participate and communicate for themselves; with an advocate to speak for them; or jointly with an advocate
- P9 support the child or young person to understand the choices they have regarding decisions being made about them and any restrictions placed upon them and others
- P10 keep records of meetings with the child or young person which show how their active participation has been promoted
- P11 where you are unable to help, work with others to refer the child or young person on to another appropriate source of help

Work in partnership with children and young people to represent their preferences and needs

You must be able to:

- P12 support the child or young person to make informed decisions about how you should represent them
- P13 provide information in an accessible and understandable format and language that gives the child or young person appropriate power and an effective voice
- P14 support the child or young person to communicate what they want you to say on their behalf
- P15 communicate to the child or young person what you are going to say and check that this reflects their preferences and needs
- P16 support the child or young person to understand what others who

- are challenging their representation may say and how you might have to change what you say in response to their comments
- P17 defend the rights of all children and young people to express their views
- P18 act only with the express permission and instructions of the child or young person, even when you disagree
- P19 treat the child or young person fairly, equally and with respect, valuing them as individuals and challenging discrimination
- P20 ensure that the activities you undertake on behalf of the child or young person have specified and achievable timescales
- P21 where deadlines for processes slip, inform the child or young person of this and the possible consequences
- P22 assure the child or young person that you will remain as their advocate unless there is a good reason for change
- P23 following the end of each contact, agree any follow-up action with the child or young person
- P24 where there are differences between your own and the child or young person's view, communicate the differences and identify the best way forward with the child or young person, key people and others
- P25 use evidence to record what has been done, how it was done and why
- P26 give the child or young person the opportunity to see, understand and challenge the records to ensure that their views and wishes are documented and understood

Help children and young people to understand the outcomes of the representation*You must be able to:*

- P27 clarify whether the child or young person has understood the proceedings and the implications of what was said and decided for and about them
- P28 support the child or young person to understand the outcomes from the representation
- P29 give the child or young person any documents that they are able to read, checking that their understanding of them is correct and clarifying issues and matters arising
- P30 provide information about the processes and outcomes from the representation in an understandable and accessible form for the child or young person
- P31 assure the child or young person that their privacy will be respected at all times and that nothing will be disclosed outside the service without their agreement, unless it is necessary to prevent significant harm and abuse to them or to someone else, or if disclosure is required by a court
- P32 enable the child or young person to understand any future action that may be taken, how they may be involved in this and any likely

effects this may have on their life

Support children and young people to evaluate their experiences of the advocacy support and the systems they have encountered

You must be able to:

- P33 support the child or young person to evaluate their experiences of the advocacy and the systems to support it
- P34 ensure that the child or young person is aware of complaints procedures and how to use these
- P35 involve the child or young person in identifying changes that need to be made to advocacy services, indicating how such their suggestions could help other children and young people and prompt decision-makers to make changes more urgently
- P36 work collaboratively with those within and outside your work setting who share similar concerns and objectives to promote children's and young people's rights and wishes
- P37 work with others to ensure that every child or young person can access advocacy services and participate effectively regardless of disability, age, gender, race, culture, religion, language, sexuality or nationality
- P38 support the child or young person to raise concerns and follow the complaints procedures when they are not happy with the service
- P39 use evidence to record what has been done, how it was done and why
- P40 give the child or young person the opportunity to see, understand and challenge the records to ensure that their views and wishes are documented and understood

related to performance
criteria

The details in this field are explanatory statements of scope and/or examples of possible contexts in which the NOS may apply; they are not to be regarded as range statements required for achievement of the NOS

Note: Where an individual finds it difficult or impossible to express their own preferences and make decisions about their life, achievement of this standard may require the involvement of advocates or others who are able to represent the views and best interests of the individual.

Where there are language differences within the work setting, achievement of this standard may require the involvement of interpreters or translation services.

Active participation is a way of working that regards individuals as active partners in their own care or support rather than passive recipients. Active participation recognises each individual's right to participate in the activities and relationships of everyday life as independently as possible

Advocacy is where a person represents the exact views of the child/young person and speaks on their behalf

The child or young person from birth to 18 years of age who requires health and care services; also to 21 where the child or young person is still eligible through legislation or policy to receive children and young people's services

To communicate may include using the child or young person's preferred spoken language, the use of signs, the use of symbols or pictures, writing, objects of reference, communication passports, other non verbal forms of communication, human and technological aids to communication

Evidence is the supporting rationale and materials that underpin decisions and actions. It should clearly differentiate between fact, informed opinion, evidence and knowledge based evidence

Independent representation is where the child or young person is represented by someone who is independent of others involved in their health and care

Key people are those who are important to an individual and who can make a difference to his or her well-being. Key people may include family, friends, carers and others with whom the individual has a supportive relationship

Level of development includes the cognitive, linguistic, physical, social, emotional and intellectual level of the child or young person

Others are your colleagues and other professionals whose work contributes to the individual's well-being and who enable you to carry out your role

Scope/range related to knowledge and understanding

The details in this field are explanatory statements of scope and/or examples of possible contexts in which the NOS may apply; they are not to be regarded as range statements required for achievement of the NOS.

All knowledge statements must be applied in the context of this standard.

Factors that may affect the health, wellbeing and development may include adverse circumstances or trauma before or during birth; autistic spectrum conditions; discrimination; domestic violence; family circumstances; foetal alcohol syndrome; harm or abuse; injury; learning disability; medical conditions (chronic or acute); mental health; physical disability; physical ill health; poverty; profound or complex needs; sensory needs; social deprivation; substance misuse

Values

Adherence to codes of practice or conduct that may be applicable to your role, and the principles and values that underpin your work setting including the rights of children and adults. These include the rights that individuals have:

To be treated as an individual

To be treated equally and not be discriminated against

To be respected

To have privacy

To be treated in a dignified way

To be protected from danger and harm

To be supported and cared for in a way that meets their needs, takes account of their choices and also protects them

To communicate using their preferred methods of communication and language

To access information about themselves
