

Q1. Agnes talks of her disappointment in learning what specialist local support was available to support her health and wellbeing. What type of support might people with dementia, their families and carers expect upon receiving a diagnosis? You may wish to consider psychological, pharmacological and community supports in your answer.

Q2. In your role, what can you do to support carers to maintain their own health and wellbeing?