

Q1. Which elements of Ellen's presentation suggest she may have dementia?

Q2. How helpful is Caroline's contribution to the discussion in supporting the social worker's understanding of how Ellen may be affected by dementia?

Q3. If you were the person talking with Ellen and Caroline, how might you have developed the discussion to gain more information and understanding of the impact of dementia on Ellen's life?

Q4. Which dementia-related tools and/or resources might you use to support your to understand the impact of Ellen's dementia and how might you use them with Ellen and Caroline?

Q5. Think about the local assessment protocols and processes you use. How will you use them with Ellen and Caroline in a way that ensures your assessment and personal support plan involve Ellen, recognising her qualities, abilities and the outcomes that are important to her?

Q6. Who may you want to contact for information/expert knowledge about working with people with dementia?